CALL FOR PAPERS

ONLINE INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

“Global Governance: Historical Developments and Current Perspectives”

Tuesday and Wednesday, 24th and 25th May 2022

Moscow time (GMT+3): 10:30am – 14:30pm

New Delhi time (GMT+5:30): 13.00pm – 17.00pm

Hanoi Time (GMT+7): 14.30pm - 18.30pm

Beijing time (GMT+8): 15.30pm - 19.30pm

Dear Friend/Colleague,

‘Global governance brings together diverse actors to coordinate collective action at the level of the planet. The goal of global governance, roughly defined, is to provide global public goods, particularly peace and security, justice and mediation systems for conflict, functioning markets and unified standards for trade and industry’.¹ Although issues in relation to global governance have increasingly been considered as important, particularly with role of the United Nations since 1945, global governance is ‘fragmented, complex and little understood’.²

In that context, an online conference titled “Global Governance: Historical Developments and Current Perspectives” will be co-hosted on Tuesday and Wednesday, 24th and 25th May 2022 by:

- Faculty of Political Science, Lomonosov Moscow University (Russia)
- School of International Law, China University of Political Science and Law (China)
- Jindal Global Law School, O.P. Jindal Global University (India)
- School of Law, Vietnam National University Hanoi (Vietnam)

The themes of the conference will include:

- Global governance: Concepts, history and developments. Global governance and the emergence of global institutions for the 21st Century.
- Global governance models and mechanisms in the history.
- Global challenges and global governance reforms in the world.

² <https://globalchallenges.org/global-governance/>

- The role and co-operations of international organisations and other international/regional/national actors in global governance.
- Legitimacy (sociological and normative) in global governance.
- Global identity and global values and their influence on global processes.
- Global governance and human rights
- Global governance and open governance.
- International law, global constitutionalism, global administrative law.

We are inviting scholars and practitioners working in this area to submit papers that would fit within the broad themes of the conference.

Online Platform

The conference will take place online via the Zoom Meetings platform and will be hosted by the School of Law at Vietnam National University Hanoi. Zoom's link and ID: To be notified via the participants' emails submitted to the registration form.

Language: English (with simultaneous English-Vietnamese interpretation)

Submission of abstracts (in English)

Authors should submit a 200-word to 250-word abstract, which includes a title of the proposed paper and the author's short biographical details (including name, email, academic appointment, affiliations).

Abstracts are to be submitted by 15 March 2022 via this link: <https://forms.office.com/r/R2qawwaGhk>. Notification of the result will be sent to you via email by 25 March 2022. If you have difficulties in submitting this form, please email: vnulsgoodgovernance@gmail.com

Submission of draft papers and presentations

Draft papers (approx. 1000-2000 words) and Powerpoint presentations (in English) are encouraged to be submitted prior to the conference, as it would be very useful for the moderators, discussants and participants to read papers in advanced in order to have in-depth questions, comments and feedback. Under agreement with authors, submitted papers will be uploaded to the conference website.

Please submit draft papers and Powerpoint presentations (if available) to vnulsgoodgovernance@gmail.com by 15th May 2022 to be included on the website prior to the conference.

Submission of full finalized papers (in English) for publication

After peer review, selected papers will be published in one of the two following outlets:
